Even Mitchell has one advantage: he can lock the cat up in jail. Recently the Mitchell's had company for dinner and the cat kept bounding around the table and meowing for attention, even rearing back on his hind legs—so they just raked up the cat and locked him up in jail.

June is supposed to be the month of brides. However, so far in Appomattox only two marriages have been issued, both to colored couples. They were: James Melvin Moore and Katie Elizabeth Allen, of Bent Creek; and Thomas Hudson Harvey and Frances Vivian Thornton.

Father Darkleaf sends a message to Harold Spencer, for so many years with Dr. James at the drug store, who has accepted a position away from Appomattox: Harold, old boy, you've been a crackerjack fellow here in Appomattox. We're going to miss you like all get out. Come back to see us as often as you can and remember, we have our best wishes.

Appomattox Editor Candidate For The House of Delegates

Calvin H. Robinson, owner and editor of the Times Virginian, yesterday announced his candidacy for the House of Delegates from the Appomattox district, comprising Appomattox and Buchanan counties, subject to the August Democratic primary.

Mr. Robinson is a life long Democrat and has long supported the Appomattox district.

For several weeks I have been urged by leading Democrats in both counties to become a candidate for the House. Numbers of petitions were brought to me from both counties urging me to run, and scores of friends have pledged me their support. I feel that I can accept this opportunity to be of service to my party and shall make an active effort to see every voter.

I urge the voters to refrain from making a pledge in the House contest until I have had a chance to see them.

Mr. Robinson has been in the newspaper business for the past 15 years. He is the son of Rev. J. H. Robinson, a prominent Virginia Baptist minister for the past 30 years. He is a graduate of the University of Richmond and in college was a member of the Sigma Phi Epsilon social fraternity, the Omicron Delta Kappa leadership fraternity, the Phi Delta Epsilon journalistic fraternity, and the Tau Kappa Alpha debating fraternity.

He married Miss Kappa Patton, a former teacher in Appomattox schools. He will be opposed by John B. Best, of Buchanan.

As the deadline for filing notices of candidacy approached, indications were without exception that all remaining county voters would be without opposition. There are only two county contests, for Commissioner of the Board of Supervisors and for the Board of Supervisors.

The regular monthly meeting of the Appomattox county board of supervisors will be held in the office of the county clerk next Wednesday.
